Q. What's your family's favorite Easter tradition?

Alice Sosbe of 456 Oak St., Antwerp says, "We really don't have any particular Easter tradition, other than a family get-together. On Easter Sunday, we usually have between 15 and 20 people for dinner. We rotate around between different family members' houses from year to year. Traditionally, we have baked ham as the main course of the meal, if one can call that a tradition. I work at a craft store east of Antwerp, so I do all kinds of crafts. Of course, Easter is a big time for ceramic ducks, eggs, chickens and all kinds of baskets. The crafts keep me pretty busy just before each holiday, getting everything finished and ready to sell a few weeks before the actual holiday."

Alice Sosbe arranges a few of the many Easter items at The Red Shed craft shop near Antwerp where she helps make many of these seasonal crafts. With the warm sunshine of recent days, many of the spring items are leaving the shop to brighten up winter-dreary homes!

Zola Long of 217 W. Third St., Van Wert says, "I guess our favorite family tradition used to be a family get-together at my father's farm near Scott. His name was W.W. Schaffner and he used to run a threshing machine and a sawmill besides farming. He used to thresh for people in the area and do a lot of commercial sawmill work. When my husband was still alive, we used to go to sunrise services and the breakfast that followed at the Trinity Methodist Church in Van Wert. I'm alone now and I have a bad heart, so I won't be going to Easter services at the church. But I WILL watch one of the Easter services on TV that morning!"

+ + +

Florence Mohr of 215 N. Wayne St., Van Wert says, "I enjoy going to church the most on Easter. I especially think it's important on Easter and especially meaningful to me. Sometimes I go to the Good Friday service and I used to go to sunrise services each year. I always enjoyed that. I go to the First Methodist Church in Van Wert and the church has always played an important part in my life. After church, I go to a relative's home for the noon meal. There are just a few of us, but it means a lot to gather together on Easter. I grew up on a farm near Scott and we had our own chickens. We always colored a lot of eggs and hid them around the place. We used to see who could hide the most and find the most. I think we probably always found them all ... at least I hope there aren't any eggs still hidden on that farm! I really used to enjoy decorating eggs when I was a young girl. I can't help but notice all the beautiful egg trees in people's yards the past few years. I like them, but I don't ever remember anyone doing that when I was young."

+ + +

Edwin Kruse of Rt. 1, Napoleon says, "Our kids are grown up and pretty well scattered now, so we don't do as much for Easter as we used to. When they were young, we colored eggs and each of them made a nice Easter basket. Nowdays, I buy some candy corn. And when the grandkids come over for Easter, I scatter some on the floor in the living room and say, 'Here, Chickie, Chickie, Chickie!' and they come running to gobble it up. I started doing that a few years ago and now they won't let me stop!"

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake . . . Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over . . . Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever . . .

Dear Lorna - Got your invitation to the Golden Wedding party. Think perhaps I will be able to make it. Hope so.

Do you have Elsie's address?
Its 802 Airport Ave. U.W. O

She hasnt had an invitation & I think she is just a wee, tiny bit hurt. For goodness sake dont let her know I told you! You have had a lot of invitations to send & its understandable to miss some one. We talk on the phone about every day & the other day I mentioned getting your note & I ask her if they were going & she talked enthusiastic about it, but said she hadnt heard from any of you & I told her I bet you didnt know ~~yours~~ her address & of course they would be invited & no doubt she would yet, get a letter. Then yesterday, out of a clear sky she said, "We never have heard from Susie's family" & again I told her that you no doubt didn't have her address, but she said (& here's where I detected the tiny bit of hurt in her voice) "well, no doubt I'll have to work, anyhow." Sooooo — if you have an extra stamp & an envelope around there, will you send her an invite & tell her you had a hard time locating her address & please! never mention me.

with Love

Aunt Florence

P.S. How do you like this stationary One of Clymer Hall girls gave it to me for Xmas. Suppose you were pretty well snowed in, like the rest of us, last weekend.

Aunt F

Feb. 15 - 85

Dear Lorna - Aren't we having lovely winter weather! Hope you are not snowed in, like so many people are. I listened to WOWO this A.M & I think they said most Ft Wayne streets are open. I think they are mostly open here in V.W. However some streets & roads are open just one way. I talked to Virginia awhile ago & 127 is a one way road. They haven't had mail all week. There was one day here in V.W that mail was not delivered but we have had it O.K. other days. I've tried to get in touch with the boy that shovels snow for me & I can't get an answer on the phone, so I called his grandmother awhile ago & told her I had tried & tried & no answer & she said "I'll tell you what happened Florence, the oldest boy has a girl frien & they were on the phone continually, tying up the line by the hour, so his mother had the phone disconnected." I thought well thats one way of settling the matter. She's going to give him my message so I'll probably get my car port scooped out before spring.

I'm sending you 5.00 to pay for the cost of printing those papers. Just keep the change, because I'll bet I still owe you some. Because you have sent me a lot of printed papers etc. If I'm still owing you, just let me know.

Hope you have a happy birthday I have written this in a hurry. I hope you can read it.

With Love

Aunt Florence

P.S Thanks for all the snap shots you have sent me. I certainly am enjoying them.

Van Wert O. June 21-70

Dear Lorna — I went upstairs & brushed through the cobwebs & found my book of ancestors, & here is what I found about the Paxson family. The father was George Paxson & the Mother was Eliza Jane Martin - Paxson. Does that fit in with your friends information? If it does I can give her family news back about 4 generations. Here it is:

The first lady on the scene was Rebecca Reid that was her married name. Husbands name was not recorded. She was your great great; great; great Grandmother. She came to America from Ireland in 1791, the records recorded 2 sons John & George Reid.

John is the man we are interested in. He was born in Ireland Dec. 18-1789 & came to America with his parents when he was 2 yrs old. (Its a shame the fathers name was lost) but to get back to John. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. He married Joanna Brown. & they had 10 children. It would be confusing to send you information where they were born, but I'm quite sure it was Germany. I presume they settled in Indiana because Grandpa Mohr became acquainted with Grandma at a German Camp-Meeting south of Decatur Ind. They were Married April 1-1860 in Allen Co. Ind. about 11 miles from Ft. Wayne. It doesn't say which direction

Sarah Ann Snearly was born Feb. 13-1842

Maybe this Info. may help you find something more about the Snearly's or Snarle's. Let me know if you find anything

It was nice seeing you & your family today. I hope our visit wasn't too much for your Mom. I thought she looked awfully tired, & that is what I am right now too. Its past my bedtime

With Love

Aunt

all of their names, but if you want them I can. The two we are interested in was a boy named Andrew Reid & a girl named Minerva Reid. Andrew Reid had a son Samuel Reid. Samuel had a daughter named Mary Ella Reid-Mohr; Mary Ella had a daughter named Susie Ellen Mohr-Davis Susie Ellen had a daughter named Lorna Ruth. Now you can take it from there Andrew Reid's Sister Minerva Reid was born Apr. 23-1836 + died Apr. 26-1911 & is buried in the Green Cemetry at Adelphi O. Minerva Married Jonathan Martin. They had 3 children: John; George or W.K.? & Eliza Jane. Eliza Jane Martin married George Paxson & they had 6 children. Joseph; Cora; Florence (a man) of all things!) Winnie; Ivan & Geraldine. & there my story ends. It would be interesting to know if these folks are the relation of your friend. I am sure George Paxson either died or deserted his wife & family. I quite well remember the youngest girl-Geraldine she & her Mother used to come to Grandma Reids. She married ~~Glen~~ Ralph Poling & they had a son Glen & a daughter Garnet. They used to live here in V.W. on George St. I beleive.

I think you also wanted information about Sarah Ann Snearly-(My grandmother Mohr.) I don't have much, but here it is: Her father's name was George F. Snearly born Aug. 10-1812. died Oct. 23-1873. Her Mother's maiden name was Mary Magdalene either Volz; Velz or Fultz. I rather think Velz is correct. I couldn't make out whether it was an O or an E. She was born Aug. 20-1817 + died Jan. 21 1891. They were married in July 1840. I have no

I was in Ada - at Ohio Northern University taking Music. On Thurs Oct 26 1922, after having my music lesson, I decided to go home & spend the week end. I left Ada at 9:40 am, on the train & got in Van Wert around 11 A.M. We lived west of town on Rt 30, at the corner of John Brown Rd. No one at home knew I was coming home so I walked out home, & they were all surprised to see me. Elsie was home from school with a cold. Ruth was getting dinner & Mother was upstairs sewing. I thought Ruth was unusally surprised to see me & I soon learned why. She & Edgar Girod were going to be married in the afternoon. They are going to live in Paulding Co. & have their house all furnished ready to move in. Now that I was home she said I had to go with them. I didnt want to, but she coaxed me & so I decided I would so she was upstairs sewing as hard as she could to get it finished. We were all fussing around with it. I had the honor of putting some trimming on her hat. Pretty soon Edgar came all dressed up & still there were some fasterners to sew on the dress. Well it was finally finished & Ruth got ready. While she was getting ready Mother told me to slip out & tie some old shoes on their car & I did. Well they were finally ready to go & we started out the door & Elsie threw some rice on them as they were leaving. We first went to the Court House & got their license. they were asked a lot of questions such as your age, & where you lived & if you had ever been married before. From there we went to the ministers home, Rev. Gottshall, ~~at~~ 308 S. Walnut St. Van Wert O. One of the streets we were on was being repaired & had fresh tar on it & it was a mess.

I doubt if anyone else ever had a wedding like theres. Mother was making Ruths dress & didnt have it quite done.

the minister wasn't home when we arrived so we had to wait about a half hour until he came. they were such nice friendly people & we were soon talking & feeling acquainted with them

Ruth & Edgar were married just at 2:30 P.M.

Ruth wore a brown Crepe de Chine dress~~ed~~ trimmed in Henna, of the same material. Her hat was a brown velvet with a sand colored crown, & she looked so nice

It was a lovely day, the sun shone warm & bright

Well after the wedding we went back home. Elsie was standing just inside the door, with a great big bouquet of pink & white Chrysthemums that she gave them. Mother came & congratulated them, & then they began to hurry around & prepare to go to their own home. Mother wanted them to stay for their supper, but they were too anxious to go to their own home. The friends & relatives came that night & belled them.

Dear Susie

you are going to begin to associate my letters with trouble, but it seems to happen this way. abbie had a light stroke Sat. 8th she had, had "flu" of the stomach and was so very sick, Walter decided to spend the night there Sat. morning her face was drawn and her left side partly paralized they took her to Dr. Smith and he said she had, had a light stroke. Her blood pressure was very high and she is de hydrated. because of her sick stomach and unable to even drink water, it is causing her kidneys to go off.

a Mrs Jenkins from Grover Hill is with her, all the time now. I talked to Marjorie and she said unless something unforseen sets in they thought she would come out of it, as already she was using herself better.

I am writing Nellie also I guess no news is good news of her. She is able to get places. and I just talked to Florence who is O.K. so this must S.P. necessarily be short.

Love
Ruth

MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO

WHEN I COME TO THE END OF THE ROAD AND THE SUN HAS SET FOR ME,
I WANT NO RITES IN A GLOOM FILLED ROOM
WHY CRY FOR A SOUL SET FREE?
MISS ME A LITTLE - BUT NOT TOO LONG
AND NOT WITH YOUR HEAD BOWED LOW,
REMEMBER THE LOVE THAT WE ONCE SHARED
MISS ME - BUT LET ME GO.
FOR THIS JOURNEY THAT WE ALL MUST TAKE
AND EACH MUST GO ALONE,
IT'S ALL A PART OF THE MASTER'S PLAN
A STEP ON THE ROAD TO HOME.
WHEN YOU ARE LONELY AND SICK OF HEART
GO TO THE FRIENDS WE KNOW,
AND BURY YOUR SORROWS IN DOING GOOD DEEDS.

TWENTY THIRD PSALMS

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restores my soul, he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me, Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Administration shows pessimism

WASHINGTON (AP) — The skies were blue, the air pollution-free on Maryland's Eastern Shore. Two dozen reporters tried to keep their minds focused on the future of arms control.

What they heard from a stream of senior Reagan administration officials who drove over from Washington in sleek limousines or were dropped in by helicopter for the two-day U.S.-sponsored seminar was mostly on the pessimistic side.

There are still a number of problems to resolve before an agreement is sealed in Geneva to rid Europe and Asia of hundreds of nuclear-tipped missiles. One official said it might take until March. Another said a treaty by year's end was possible, but he would not bet on it.

Where bigger and more dangerous weapons are concerned — the bombers, missiles and submarines that can span continents with nuclear devastation — the Soviets are not even willing to negotiate unless and until President Reagan restricts his search for an anti-missile defense in space.

And Reagan has ruled that out. "Star Wars" is going ahead.

A senior presidential adviser, Paul H. Nitze, is trying to persuade the president to authorize special U.S.-Soviet talks. The idea would be to take some of the steam out of the controversy over the Strategic Defense Initiative by figuring out which kinds of technology could be tested legally.

So far, Reagan is resisting.

An agreement on missiles in Europe and Asia seemed in the bag only last week when the North Atlantic Council, at the behest of Secretary of State George P. Shultz, gave its approval in Reykjavik, Iceland, to the terms Shultz worked out with Soviet leader percent. So hopes were raised at least a little bit.

It's been eight years since the two superpowers concluded their last major arms control agreement. That was SALT II, limiting various categories of long-range weapons. Reagan called it "fatally flawed" and decided last year it was not worth keeping alive.

But he joyously reported to the nation Monday night that the United States had a "historic opportunity" to sharply reduce and possibly eliminate Soviet intermediate-range missiles.

In Moscow, however, a senior Soviet official was telling a ranking American that Shultz may have "misunderstood" Gorbachev as saying the Soviets were willing to dismantle about 40 shorter-range rocket launchers in Asia.

U.S. negotiator Max M. Kampelman left Wednesday for Geneva determined to battle that out with Soviet negotiator Yuli Vorontsov.

And that's not the only problem.

U.S. negotiators are still trying to get the Soviets to remove 33 other medium-range missiles from their Asian territory while refusing to yield to Soviet demands that 33 matching U.S. rockets not be stored in Alaska.

Japan and China claim they are threatened by the Soviet missiles. The Soviets feel the same way about U.S. rockets in Alaska.

Whatever the outcome, verifying Soviet compliance with the treaty could be a headache. There is some question how many medium-range SS-20 rockets the Soviets now have. So it would be very hard to tell how many they'd have left after a treaty took effect.

Income rising

Americans show more money after report

By The Associated Press

Americans had more money in their pockets and bank accounts last month after recovering from unusually large tax bills, leading to some optimism that consumers will spend more in coming months and help stimulate the economy.

The Commerce Department said Thursday that personal after-tax in-biggest decline in 12 years. The higher-than-usual tax bills covered profits made at the end of last year as Americans sold long-term investments.

The profit-taking was spurred by the overhaul of the tax laws that raised the government's take on long-term capital gains beginning Jan. 1.

Before taking taxes into account, personal income rose a slight 0.2 percent in May following a 0.4 percent

Radio and Television

NEW YORK (AP) — "Not All Parents Are Straight," a film to be shown Sunday on PBS, listens to children talk about coping with homosexual parents. They deserve attention.

The children in six families interviewed by San Francisco filmmaker Kevin White seem to be coping well, almost too well. They have dealt first with the shock, then with the stigma put on them by friends and neighbors, and talk with a maturity far beyond their years.

Yet they also betray their discomfort, especially in their frequent insistence that they aren't gay.

"I thought this is so weird, like something you read about in the National Enquirer, having a gay father, and I thought it was so strange," one girl says.

"My first reaction was, 'That explains everything.' It was really one of relief," says another girl. "It explained why I had to deal with all these weird men. It explained why the divorce happened."

A boy remarks: "I think I've heard, seen and been through everything. I think nothing shocks me anymore."

White said he hoped to combat the popular notion that gay parents inevitably produce gay children, but the film has another important message. With all the confusion these kids have had at home, why should they have to put up with suspicion and abuse from their schoolmates and neighbors?

The parents in these families often are exemplary. One man has adopted a boy with cerebral palsy and has taken on a foster son in addition to his own boy.

All the kids are coping. That may be a selective view, but White said it was

Dear Lorna & Ken,

I'm like the 'Energizer' – still going. It was 68° today and very dry. There is so much sickness, 'flu' and 'viruses' that we need some cold weather to freeze the bugs. David + Nelly drove to Boston in Oct., stopped in V.W. on the way back and brought me apples, pears, cider and quinces. Ohio fruit sure tasted good. So far as I know we are all ok. I hope you two are well and happy. Enjoy your fine children and grand children. Life is so brief. Love to you, Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna,

Spring is truly coming - there are yellow crocuses in bloom in my back yard. I have heard spring birds singing, too.

You have had a winter that you won't forget for a while but ours has been mild. Of course it's only middle Feb. and anything can still happen.

Before I forget - you asked for the names of married children other than Steven. Cristina is married to Quentin Filippo and they have Alexis Kae 1 yr old Feb. 5th and Monica is married to Lester Walker and they have no children. Monica graduates from East State University at Ada, OK. this spring. She is trained as a primary teache and will be a good one if she can find a job. Steven is back in College. He is studying to be a vo-ag teacher and Rachel is in vet. medicine. They both go to Ok State U. We have one in Hi School & one in grade school. Now the next generation is coming on so we'll have someone in school till the end of time.

My house hasn't sold in Van Wert. There were 3 houses close together for sale and that is a handicap. I think the Brown's house is sold. I had a painter paint the interior of mine recently so hope that will help. The chief reason it hasn't sold is that it is priced too high. The realtor is the guy who set the price so he should adjust it. His time is up Apr. 1

Once upon a time Aunt Lily knitted herself a suit - she gave it to Nelly who wore it a while but now it is old and nobody wants it so I unravelled it and am now making an afghan. The yarn is about the weight of baby yarn and is wool so it should be a nice afghan.

One of Nelly's friends had an old afghan that was surely a hundred years old and a wreck and I put it back together again. It was made up of rectangles, 189 of them in 6 colors was made of very small wool yarn and impossible to match but was still beautiful so I had a real time repairing it but she was pleased with the finished product.

I keep busy. Jennifer has an electric keyboard and I can only remember one piece 'Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms' but I play from her clarinet book - and pass a lot of time. It takes me forever to do anything. I walk outside with a cane to steady myself and walk up the lane to the mailbox everyday. On David's birthday I walked over to their place. I live close enough that Nelly can see when I have my bedroom drapes open. I enjoy watching their 3 horses. They speak with body language. Laid back ears and a slight toss of the head means 'dont come any closer'. A tiny little jump with the rear end means 'I'll kick the daylights out of you if you dont leave me alone'; A rapid switching of the tail means 'I want to take a nap and you're disturbing me'. The gelding bites the mares and I think he thinks they did it. The kids ride them and David does too.

I had a nice 90th birthday. I dont like to go out in the evening so I had them all in for pizza. They all like it and I can hardly stand it but I enjoyed the birthday cake and ice cream.

Byron was in the Navy and I prize the flag from his funeral so they (David & Nelly) gave me a beautiful walnut case in which to display it.

How is the dear little grandson? People surely miss a lot of joy if they have no children.

When I was little a family named

Brash moved into the first house west of us on the Paulding-Van Wert Co line and their daughter became my childhood friend. I hear from her at Christmas and birthday and she is one who has no family. She was an only child and had no children and is so alone. Her husband died in 1970. I need to go shopping but it tires me so I keep putting it off. I wear some of A. Florence's old clothes and recently made over a pair of her slacks. Byron & I saved our money and saved our money and now that I am alone I wish we'd spent it like ditch water. It doesn't mean much without him. And the children are spending it like ditch water. So don't save your money - only enough for a rainy day but enjoy the years you have together.

Petey, my canary entertains me every day with his beautiful song. People are so surprised at all the music he makes and I believe there aren't many canaries around. Sometimes his song is sad and then I wish a mate for him but they make a lot of work when they raise young and I'm getting lazy. Do you remember Rollo?

Well I'd better sign off and go to bed as it is 11:30.

Thank you for the birthday card.

With love,
Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna & Ken,

I miss your Mom. She was the most outstanding of my sisters. So often I think "I must remember and write that to Susie" when I have some family news - and then I realize she is gone. Of all the children, I think she was most affected by our father's death. She was 7½ and must have worshipped him. She was a woman of strong convictions always doing what she felt was right. We need more people like that - especially in the government. Sometimes I wonder if all this to-do in the Persian Gulf isn't partly to keep our minds off the mess we are in here at home.

December is a difficult month for us older people - I don't know why, for it should be a time of joy. For the past 2 yrs. '88 and '89 Florence has gone 'haywire' in December.

In '88 she failed to pay bills and in '89 she wrote 5 checks with insufficient funds - It cost her $60. She won't let Virginia manage her affairs. Virginia got her check book straightened up and then she demanded it back. She's a problem. She had 7 health insurance policies. One cost her $115.13 a mo. Her elec. bill is usually about $25. Recently it wass $88 with an additional $10 charge for disconnect. So it hadn't been paid for some time. She resents any interference. A woman from Aid for the Aged persuaded her to drop all the health ins. but Medicare, Aetna and a Nursing Home policy but who knows if she did. I call her everyday and she always talks and makes sense as she always does but ins. on her house lapsed and many bills are often unpaid so she needs Virginia to help. Maybe I'm stubborn, too. We can't see ourselves. We're better this wk. than last. Still don't know when I'll have the pacemaker replaced. Hope you're all well & happy.

A. Sabina

Dear Lorna,

I'm settled in my new home and like it very much. David and Nelly have worked and worked getting it ready so I'd better like it. The former owner was so destructive and there were many things to repair.

Virginia's grandsons came Friday and loaded everything on a Hertz moving van and David's stock trailer and they worked like professionals. Before we knew it we were loaded - stayed Fri. night with Virginia and started out Sat. morning. Riding in the Buick was like sitting in a rocking chair. We made wonderful time until we ran into a terrible storm in Missouri. We had planned on staying in Springfield, Mo. Sat. night so we could get to McLoud in time for the family to unload and we got in a little after noon on Sun All the kids pitched in and we were soon unloaded.

The boys carried the things upstairs - the heavy things.

I'll be years getting things in their rightful places but the main and necessary things are set up and working.

I have a big house and won't need the upstairs.

There are 2 sun rooms and I use one as a sitting room.

Thank you for the pictures.

And thanks for the lovely day you and Ken, Kathleen and Allen gave me.

The weather is sunny and warm. There has been frost and the nights are cool. I'm doing OK. Hope things are well with you.

Love,
Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna,

I don't have the boys addresses so will you please furnish them and send them on their way.

Thank you, dear Lorna, for your many kindnesses and a special thanks to Ken. He's a jewel and I love you both dearly.

Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna,

Thank you for the family history and the pictures. I told Monica you had records clear back to Adam and Eve. I was surprised that only Uncle Ed, in my father's family, lived past 70 and he was 81. And Grandpa Mohr must have been the runt in his family. I'm trying to write up Florense's diary. It is in bits and pieces as she destroyed most of it and just kept a page here and there or jotted down an item of interest on a slip of paper. (Ruth + Susie brought back a bucket of fish from Canada when they visited Uncle Harley). The poems Virginia sent she found among Florence's things. They are doggeral but she said she enjoyed them so I said send them if you wish,

Today is bright and pretty. I hope it will be so on Saturday.

See you Saturday.
Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna,

Do you write on the side with the roses on it or on this side?

I'm packing dishes etc. and if all goes well will be on my way to Mc Loud, OK. on Oct. 17th. David, Nelly & the 2 youngest will come Oct. 14th, will pack & load the 15th & 16th and travel the 17th. They have bought a place for me adjoining theirs on the north — a big 2 story house but just a walk across a field from them. They're just working their heads off to get it ready for me, so I'd better like it. David will move me. I begged him to let me get a moving van but he will not. He doesn't realize how much junk I have. I tried to sell my place and had two prospects but neither made an offer so yesterday I listed it with a realtor.

I was just getting adjusted to losing Byron when I am being uprooted and it is awful, but I sure don't want to be here over winter so there was no other reasonable way.

If you come before I leave I have some pint cans to give you. If I forget, remind me. Also if you remember it return Florence's diary notes. If you already have, remind me.

The days will be long in OK. so I'll spend my time writing letters. With love,

Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna,

I enjoyed your good letter. This is the wonderful week of the Fair. We enjoyed it as kids but havent gone in years. We arent physically able to go. We can hardly manage a trip to the grocery any more. A neighbor has told Byron he shouldn't be driving the car and I know it is the truth but it's hard to give it up. It's cutting off some of your freedom.

Byron is a little better than he was earlier in the week. He won't go to the doctor. Monday he took 3 pain pills and it stopped the pain but slowed the other bodily processes too. So he had to resort to Ex-lax. He took one in the morning; no results one at noon; no results; one in the evening plus a half glass of prune juice and then for the next day and night - Results, Results, Results.

I dont know about the wealth of the Karshners or the Reids. Mother's favorite cousins were on the Reid side and they were prosperous people - had nice homes. Uncle John and Uncle Jake and Grandpa all had farms. But the only Karshner cousins I can recall were Jane Lane and the Hostlers. I do recall that when Florence Hostler Kelly came to visit Grandma everything had to be ship-shape and you would think the governor was coming. I don't know if they scrubbed the privy but I'll bet they did. It was a long time ago. She lived in New York City.

If you have not sent in the order for the new copies of the book you might want to correct a printing error on P. 14. The 11th line should be 'Never kicked, never bit, could lead it with yarn.' The printer goofed. It is a good book and well put together and I'm surprised that more of my family didn't ask for copies. I'm enclosing $10.10 for Monica's. Her name and address — and I thank you for sending it. It's a chore to get to the P.O. I buy 100 stamps at a time and Byron got them last time. When they put this little bitty roll in his hand he said, "Is that all I get for $29?". He thinks things should be as they were 50 yrs. ago.

Monica J. Walker
P.O. Box 421
Newalla, Ok. 74857

Hope you and Ken are well and enjoying the new grandson.

With love,
Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna;
Thank you for the good letter and the picture. Audrey is a beautiful child and I'm sure she is a joy. Looks like she has lots of dark hair as did her grandma at that age.
Our kids go back to school this week, Jennifer a high school senior and Elizabeth in the 7th Grade. The two in college start next week. It's a busy time. And hot! Every day in the 90's and a few times over 100°.
David took a week's vacation last week and they went to San Antonio, Texas for four days. Steven came everyday, Kathy (his wife) came two days and called two or three days as did Cristina so I was well cared for. I no longer walk down the lane to the mail box as I get wobbly and I don't want to fall and smash things up. Janice Taylor's mother-in-law fell and broke her pelvis in 2 places and broke her jaw. She's in her 80's. Janice & Steve are building a house near Virginia. Janet, the older daughter, recently had heart surgery. 5 hrs. on the operating table!

I've been crocheting up a storm. I want to make an afghan for each of the 2 yr. olds. I had Lindsey's about 1/3 done and decided I didn't like the color combination so I'm ripping it out and changing the colors. I love to crochet. And my canaries take an enormous amount of my time. I have 9. They are in 6 cages. Two of the boys room together and three of the girls. The girls seldom fight but the boys 'have at it' several times a day. They are all in their baby moult. They lose their little feathers but not their flight feathers. In the regular moult they lose all the feathers. When I cleaned and fed them this morning I gave them all cucumber, which they love. They also love dandelion.

I bought my first canary from Jane Lane, $3, perhaps 70 yrs. ago. She was mother's cousin. Now in the pet shops they sell for 30 x that. I've had canaries most of my life and love them. Nelly says mine are the most spoiled in the state of Oklahoma I'll sell the young ones when they get old enough. It's an interesting hobby. When Monica comes to see me we talk 'school' and never change the subject. She's a teacher - 1st Grade at Harrah. Your mother wouldn't believe how schools are conducted now. They have sure changed over the years.

Byron's mother was a teacher - got $25 a month and board and room with the families of the children she taught. She had no college training but had to pass the teacher's exam.

You should see my garden! 2 tomato plants. I think they each have 2 tomatoes on them. First it was so wet and now it is so hot. Byron & I always loved tomatoes and ate them everyday; supplied the neighbors, too. We used to spend the summer canning so we could eat all winter but nobody cans any more. They no longer have gardens here. We lived out of the garden but we had good soil.

One of Nellie's girls stopped by to see me some time ago - Bertha - She & Vaughn were on their way to vacation in Hawaii. I hadn't seen her in years. I wouldn't have known her. Florence kept in touch with all of them, but only Nellie's John came to see us occasionally. Maybe I already told you of her visit. We had an awful tragedy too - the bombing of the Federal Building. Don't remember if I've written you since then. Killed 168 and injured hundreds. It is still on the TV every day in some form. It is so hard for people to get over it when it is constantly brought before them. Because of the often threat of tornadoes the rescue was working almost immediately; hundreds of drs., nurses, police, firemen etc. People were wonderful. I don't know why I was thinking of a family named Towe who lived west of you when you lived in Paulding County but I was and this funny thing came to mind. Their youngest, Beulah was almost blind as a child. She was in Frances Hunsaker's class at school. Once Frances remarked that she was the best reader in the room for one eye. She was the only reader in the room with vision in only one eye. Their oldest boy was Raymond. Raymond bought a Model T Ford and wouldn't show his sisters how to drive it so they watched what he did and when he was busy in the field they started it and drove it and didn't know how to stop it so they drove it into a wire fence. Later somebody stole it and he painted 'Gone but not forgotten' on the garage door. They were a happy-go-lucky bunch. Their father, 'Al' used to wear the girls' old hats when he worked out in the field.

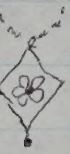
Nelly just came and took me out to the field where David and Steven are making hay. David is raking and Steven bailing - those big round bales. Both worked their regular jobs and this is after work. It is sudan grass and makes feed for both horses & cattle. It is rented land & both men enjoy farming.

Well, this is a long letter but then I'm gabby. Hope you are both OK.

Love, Aunt Sabina

Dear Lorna,

Thank you for the card and book. I remember some of the poems and found the book very interesting. The stories and poems nearly all have a moral. Today's kids would find them dull. And it cost 42¢. Books were handed down in our family the same as clothes. My first arithmetic had no back. We get letters from our Elizabeth in the 1st Grade and I don't remember much of my first year but I'll bet I couldn't write a letter. She writes phonetically and I can read it all. ixited (excited) Feb you wary - her birthday too. The times they are a-changing. Even tho' I seldom got to see her, I do miss your mother. So many times when I see something in the paper I think 'I must remember to write that to Susie'. I had a news item about Tim Hunsaker cut out to send her. He had used CPR and saved somebody's life. She was the sister who 'did things'. We knew nothing about college and she went off to college without finishing high school. Because she was enrolled in the teaching course I went along with it, too and I have never been sorry.



When she came into her inheritance she bought me a beautiful lavellier, (sp.?) It had a diamond shaped gold background with a blue forget-me-not in the center and a little pearl drop. I don't know why she was so good to me. A younger sister has a very soft spot in her heart for the older sister who helped look after her.

I must have been mistaken about the Patterson and Boxwell. I have no idea what the Boxwell was but the Patterson was evidently the 8th Grade test. I'm so glad she was with Kathleen. Hope your birthday is joyful.

December 14, 2000

Greetings to all of our extended family and friends:

We started out the year 2000 with a new project. After several years of searching, we finally found it...the perfect lake front property. After much tedious work, including raking billions of leaves and tearing down the existing house, we can finally see Lake Eufaula from our fifth-wheel trailer. The kids and grandkids all came down several times this summer and had a blast.

David retired in May. The entire family wonders how he ever had time to work as a Civil Engineer at Tinker Air Force Base and still care for our home. I have had an interesting time adjusting to David's new schedule. I have been busy caring for the grandkids and working with David.

Cristina, Quentin, Alexis, and Ethan are a busy family. Cristina is about to finish school. She will have a Ph.D. in Psychology. Quentin now works for himself as a broker. Alexis is in the 2nd grade and does very well in school. She is involved in Gifted and Talented. Her teacher is Mrs. Nikkel, who has taught all of our kids. Ethan is a very rambunctious four year old. He loves his grandpa and works with him on the tractor.

Monica and Les are expecting their second baby in May. Nicolette, now four years old, is very excited about having a new playmate. Les and Monica both work at Tinker AFB.

Steven, Kathy, Lindsey, and Kylee are doing fine. Steven teaches agriculture at Prague High School. Kathy works at the school also. Steven remains extremely excited over the two deer he got this year, a six-point buck and a twelve-point buck. Lindsey is in the 2nd grade. She does very well in school. She has beautiful penmanship. Kylee is three years old. She likes to keep everyone on the run.

Rachel and Dan graduated from Oklahoma State University (Rachel graduated with the highest of honors). They moved to Kansas where they both practice veterinary medicine. They are expecting their first child in March. We hope they will be able to return to Oklahoma soon.

Jennifer and Sam are expecting their first-born in July. Sam works at Tinker AFB. Jennifer is a hairdresser. They can't wait for their little bundle of joy!

Liz is graduating from high school in May. We are very proud of her. She is the top female student at McLoud. She will be Valedictorian. She wants to get into the medical field. She will probably attend the University of Oklahoma.

The kids are all growing up, and we deserve a pat on the back for a job well done (HaHaHa). The grandkids are a pleasure. They are growing not only in height, but also in knowledge. We enjoy having them over and then we love to send them home to their parents.

We hope you have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. May the Lord bless you and keep you!

Best Wishes,

The Burris Family

December 2002

Dear Family and Friends,

Hope this letter finds all of you happy and healthy! After 3 years of working on the lake place we are finally about to be finished. The kids and grandkids all came down several times this summer and had a wonderful time on the boat, grilling out, fishing, and jet skiing.

David and I have traveled to Ohio this summer to visit relatives, we took the back roads to get there instead of the Interstate. It was interesting exploring new places.

Quentin, Cristina, Alexis and Ethan are busy as usual. Alexis is in fourth grade and Ethan in Kindergarten, they are both wonderful kids. Quentin is a broker and travels a lot, Cristina is still working at the University of Oklahoma Health Science Center. She should get her PHD in about three months.

Monica, Les, Nicolette and Lainie are also a very busy family. Les works at night at Tinker AFB, Monica also works there but during the day. Nicolette is in Kindergarten, she is a sweet little girl. Lainie stays home with Les during the day and with Monica at night. She had her Cochlear implant and can hear. Lainie is such a happy child. They bought a nice home with 5 beautiful acres. They soon will be moving into it.

Steven and Kathy had a new addition in February, beautiful little Abigail. Lindsey and Kylee just adore her. Lindsey is in 4th grade, she is so tall for her age and a nice girl. Kylee is "little sunshine", she always smiles and looks like Aunt Liz. Steven works for the Soil Conservation for Pottawatomie County, Kathy is a very successful Domestic Engineer.

Dan, Rachel and Katie moved to Texas last Summer. They work for a large Veterinary Clinic in Sulphur Springs, TX. This is Dairy Country and there is abundance of work. Rachel is expecting a little one by March. Adorable Katie goes to mother's day out when Rachel works.

Jennifer and Sam have a beautiful new home. They moved in last year in November. Kaleb, their little boy is a bundle of energy. They just had a baby girl 2 days ago. Her name is Avrie Maree, she is so cute and petite. Jennifer came home today.

Liz is a sophomore at OU, she commutes from our home every day. It takes 45 minutes of travel from McLoud. She changed her major to Psychology, wanting to go to Law school or getting a PHD in Psychology. She is a busy young lady. She is taking 17 hours.

As you can see, we have a very busy life. David is puttering around the farm and is enjoying retirement. He is getting ready to fix up the 5th wheel to get ready to travel to Florida before too long. We have friends and family there.

I take care of the house, enjoy the kids and lake, and sometimes help with the grandkids. I love to go places with David, after all he is my best friend.

This letter is sent to you to celebrate Jesus' Birthday. The Lord is good, and because of Him life is good. If any of you are out this way, look us up; we would love to see you. May He richly bless you and keep you.

With Love, The Burris family

Had such a good time
at the reunion - Thanks
Love Nelly

December 2004

We would like to wish you and your family a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

2004 has been a good year for our family. We praise the Lord Jesus for all the Blessings He has bestowed upon us.

Cristina, Quentin, Alexis, Ethan and Jake live now in Fountain Hills, Arizona. Quentin's job required for the family to move there. Cristina is presently a stay at home mom. They bought a lovely home. We helped them move in July. They will come home for Christmas and spend a couple of weeks with us. Lexi is turning 12 in Feb., she is involved in track, basketball and is a good student. Ethan, 8, is a busy little guy, he is in soccer and does real well in the competitions, he is also a very good student. Jake is now 1 and a lively little boy. He keeps mom on her toes.

Monica and her two girls are selling their home. Monica would like to live closer to a facility that can help Lainie with her sign language. You should see her sign! She is so cute. Nicolette is in second grade, a very good student and helps her mom with Lainie.

Steven, Kathy, Lindsey, Kylee and Abigail are also a busy family. Steven's job is very time consuming. They rise pigs for show, check the Ag kids projects. Steven has been hunting. He got a 6 point buck just the other day. He wants to get the big one, one of these days. Lindsay is in the 6th grade, she plays basketball, shows animals and is taller than I am. Kylee is in 1st grade. She reads really well, she also shows animals in the open categories. Abbie, is a cute 2 and a half years old. Keeps all of the girls really busy. Kathy is currently going to school. Next semester she is taking a full load. She loves college.

Rachel, Dan, Katie and Emmie moved to Terrell, Texas. He works at a wonderful clinic there. Rachel does contract work, when a clinic needs her they call her. When she is not working she stays home with the girls. Emmie is doing great, she is the little one that was premature, she is on target with everything. Katie attends pre-school twice a week. She loves school, she is almost 4. Both girls are so sweet.

Jennifer, Sam, Kaleb and Avrie have a really active family. Kaleb (3) likes farm equipment. He loves to work, especially with his dad's tools. Avrie is Jennifer in miniature. She is turning 2 tomorrow, she is a sweet little girl. Sam is about to finish his business degree. He got a good promotion this year. Jen is implementing a mother's day out program at our church, she still works as a beautician in her home..

Elizabeth is also finishing her degree. She will graduate in May. She is taking her GRE tomorrow for entrance into the PHD program. She went with me to Switzerland this Summer. She works at Dillard's when she is not in school. She moved to Norman last January to be nearer the school. This fall she took Remington, her dog, to the apartment. He is being spoiled by Liz and her roommate.

David and I enjoy each others company. We have traveled some this year. Went out West twice, once to Ohio, several times to Texas, and the last vacation we took was in Branson, Missouri. We had a good time there. We spend lot of time at the lake when the weather permits. The lake is a wonderful place for a little down time, we boat, fish, jet ski, visit with friends and of course we work. We would enjoy for you to come and visit us. We have plenty of room and we would surely show you a wonderful time. We send you all the best in the coming year, may the Lord Bless you and keep you.

Dear Friends and family,

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! Where has this year gone? As I sit down to write this letter, I reflect on how truly Blessed we have been. We hope this letter will find you and yours joyful and looking forward to this Blessed Christmas season.

Cristina, Quentin, Alexis, Ethan and Jake are doing well. They were here for Thanksgiving, and will return for the Christmas vacation. We went to visit them twice this year. Both times we took our four wheeler so that we could "climb" the Four Peak region. We drove unto the high desert for 18 miles and then returned. It is rugged, but we loved it. Cristina and the kids spent part of the Summer with us, we enjoyed their stay. They have 3 lovely kids.This fall when we went back, we visited the Grand Canyon.

Monica, Nikki and Lainie are also doing really well. They moved from their home to Moore, Oklahoma. The school system has special facilities for Lainie who is hearing impaired. Nikki is a top student at her school. She earned several awards in school and also in art. One of her art pieces went to State. Lainie is a happy child, excelling in her signing and getting very expressive.

Steven, Kathy, Lindsay, Kylee and Abbie are now our neighbors. They moved in the house next to our acreage. It's nice to have them so close. Steven is no longer teaching. He is now an insurance agent for Farmers insurance. He is one of their top selling recruits. Kathy is a stay at home mom, she and Abbie run the other two girls to school and games.

Rachel, Dan, Katie and Emmie are in Texas. They moved in February of this year. I went down to help them for 9 days. Their home is very nice with a lovely swimming pool. Rachel works 3 days a week. The girls go to a church sponsored Pre K and Kindergarten, Dan is a workaholic, he just never quits. Texas has had a terrible drought, just like Oklahoma. We all have lacked a tremendous amount of rain.

Jennifer, Sammie, Kaleb and Avrie are a happy little family. Sammie just got a nice promotion, Jennifer bought some chickens and has a good time feeding them and tending them. They enjoy the lake almost as much as we do. Kaleb is a busy little guy. He plays so hard. Avrie looks just like Jenny, she is also a busy child.

Elizabeth bought a little house. It's cheaper than renting. It's very cute, she, her boyfriend Paul and David installed some hard wood flooring this summer. The area had carpet and she wanted to continue the "look" with hard wood. They refinished the floor and it looks great. She is currently undergoing exams. Law school is especially tedious the first year.

David is busy with his old tractors, his farm, the kids and the lake place. I, on the other hand, I'm the Jack of all trades, I wear a multitude of hats (cook, dishwasher, driver, 4 wheeler, gofer (go fer this and go fer that), babysitter etc.). I love it!

Love to you and yours. David and Nelly

Christmas 2005

It's that time again – Merry Christmas to you and your family. This year has been very busy for David and me. So busy, in fact, that we didn't even take a vacation outside of Oklahoma this year. We've had to contend with three natural mishaps this year. The first was at the lake in January when an ice storm wreaked havoc on the trees. The second was in July when the lake flooded within ten feet of our cabin. The third was this past week when a huge ice storm wiped numerous trees out. We now have a big job cleaning and burning. We were very fortunate in that we were only out of power for about five hours. Others, such as Liz, were out of power for over four days.

David and I spent most of the fall at the lake building a garage for our boat. David was the engineer and I was his "gopher". We built the whole thing of steel and it is a true masterpiece! We are hoping that we will be able to make the cousin's reunion in Ohio this summer.

This year Cristina started her own business doing counseling work and independent consulting. Quentin continues to work for the same company as a broker. Alexis is in the 9th grade and she plays basketball and really enjoys it. Ethan is in the 5th grade and he plays many sports. His team won the football Super Bowl out of all of the Norman 5th grade teams. Jake turned four this year. He really loves Spiderman and dancing (especially to Soulja Boy).

Monica continues to work at Tinker. She and the girls moved to a house with a cute yard for the girls this year due to the continued flooding of her apartment. Nikki is in 5th grade. She really likes to take piano and singing lessons. Lainie is still going to school in Moore. She is learning to sign so much!

Steven opened an insurance branch of his own on Harrah-Newalla Road this year. Kathy stays at home with the kids. Lindsey is in the 9th grade. She enjoys FFA and playing basketball. Kylee is in the 4th grade. She enjoys being involved in 4-H and Hannah Montana. Abbey is in Pre-K this year. She plays summer t-ball and has a great sense of humor. Matthew is 18 months old now. He loves his cowboy boots and Sponge Bob and is always running!

Rachel has stopped working for several different veterinarians and is just working as a vet in one office. Dan continues to work as a veterinarian in the same office he has worked in for several years now. Katie is in 1st grade. Emmy is in pre-school. Both girls like Disney movies and animals, especially dogs. They both love to swim in their pool.

Jenny and Sammy welcomed another addition into their family – Isaac Daniel. He is now 5 months old and such a cutie! Jenny is staying at home with the kids and doing some hair on the side. Sammy continues to work at Tinker and for his Uncle's home construction business. Kaleb is in Kindergarten. He loves "army stuff" and he plays t-ball in the summer. Avrie is in Pre-Kindergarten. She loves playing with dolls and helping to take care of her new little brother.

Lizzy is finishing up her last year of law school. It's been a long seven years! She is getting married on the 28th of this month. She and Paul will continue to work in Norman. Paul is finishing up school at OU and plans to attend graduate school in Physical Therapy.

We hope that you all have a blessed holiday season and a very happy new year!

Love to all,

David + Nelly
